

QUALITY POLICY

R C Eng Co Ltd aims to continue to grow as a manufacturer of quality goods geared to the needs of our customers and clients, thereby contributing to the local and regional regeneration.

The Company operates a quality management systems which is designed around the standards of BS EN ISO 9000:2001 Certification, including aspects specific to the manufacturing industry. The quality management system is described in the QA Procedures Manual. All personnel understand the importance of quality and abide with the contents of this Quality Manual.

R C Eng Co Ltd complies with all legislation relevant to the training industry (as applicable) and also The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974.

The Company constantly monitors its quality & verification performance and will implement improvements when appropriate.

In particular, it is the policy of R C Eng Co Ltd to comply with the standards and regulations of the awarding bodies, and accountable bodies and the Governmental inspection body, against which we monitor performance and strive for continuous improvement.

- Industry Institute Bodies
- Inspection visits by Registration of Approved Consultants
- Annual Accounts audit
- Internal ISO audit every quarter or when required
- H&S and Equal Opportunities review annually
- Inspection by ISO awarding company

R C Eng Co Ltd has specific responsibility for ensuring that the Company and its partners operate in accordance with the stated QA standards and for their implementation.